AMMERMAN REUNION

The 16th annual reunion of the Ammerman family was held at the home of J. F. Britton, at Sharon Center, on Saturday, Aug. 22, 1914. The dinner was served on the lawn. Delicious and lovely fruits, peaches and the large blue, delicious plums, Everything the appetite could desire was there. There were 45 members of the family present. After dinner the business meeting followed and the reading of the minutes by the secretary. Officers of last year were retained. The program was short and the secretary closed with an original poem, "A Southern Plantation Home." The following places were represented: Akron, Tallmadge, Copley, Sharon, Montville, Medina, Cleveland, California. The music, both vocal and instrumental, was greatly enjoyed by all. The host and hostess gave their guests a time never to be forgotten. At the close the company was served with delicious ice cream and cake and looking forward to the next meeting at E. O. Woodward and family in Sharon on the 4th Saturday in Aug. 1915. Julia A. Frizzell, secretary.

Tuesday, Sept. 8, is the day set for the reopening of the schools of the county. This is because of Monday, the 7th, being Labor day. However, any school is privileged to disregard the holiday and open Monday if they wish. It is understood that one or more of the schools will do this.
